A VERTICAL COMMUNITY

Designed by iconic high-rise architects SOM, Manhattan Loft Gardens is an extraordinary double-cantilevered tower of expansive loft apartments, a series of spectacular sky terraces, two restaurants and a design hotel. The Stratford is a hotel that does things differently.

Meet in the magnificent triple-height lobby. Relax over lunch and cocktails at Kitchen E20. Dine at Allegra, a restaurant spanning level 7 and experience one of the three spectacular terraces in the sky. Unwind at The Mezzanine, the secluded late-night bar overlooking the lobby.

Spend a few nights in the hotel or enjoy an extended stay in the Lofts, our stunning rental apartments spanning up to level 42.

LIFE AT NEW LEVELS

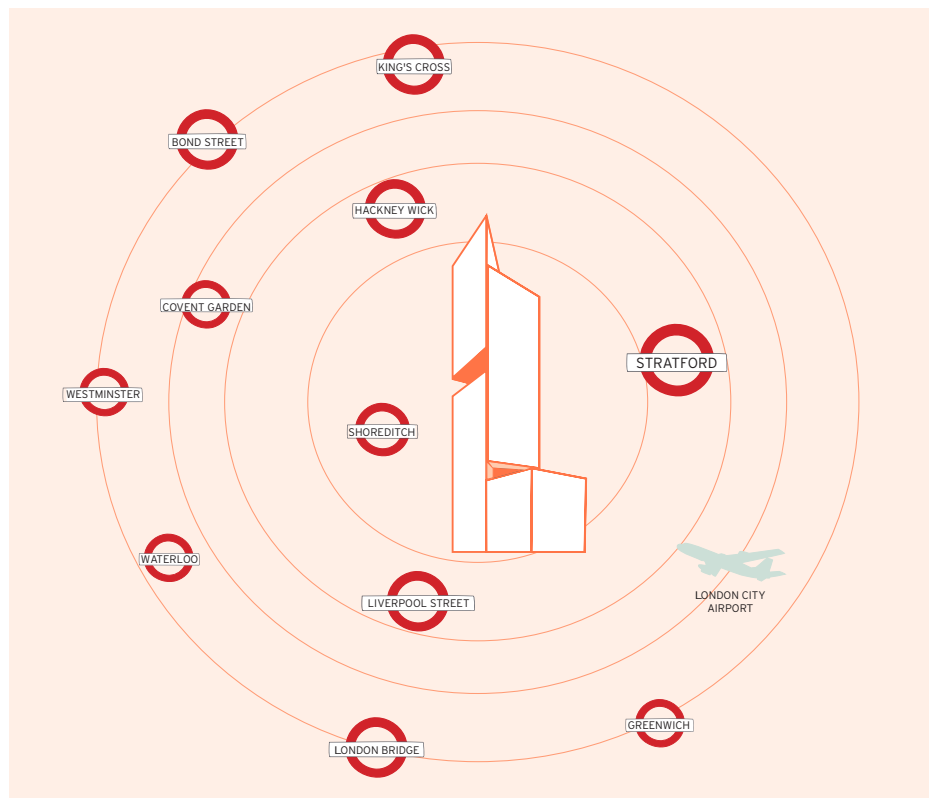

Overlooking the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, The Stratford's unique architectural composition is propelled by a vision of social potency – embracing spontaneous interaction and green space to encourage an authentic vertical community to take shape.

Inspired by the timeless glamour and maverick social spirit of New York's legendary long-stay hotels, The Stratford is a unique building where you can spend the night, stay the week or move in for good.

RESIDENTIAL

Guests staying for weeks, months or years, will head to The Lofts – a collection of one, two and three, single and double height, bedroom apartments punctuated by exclusive access to the three extraordinary sky terraces.

The interiors, by Studio KO and LSI Architects, comprise oak flooring, bespoke furniture and serrated floor-to-ceiling windows. For the sprawling penthouses, Alexander Gorlin brings his unique brand of Manhattan modernism.

The Lofts are serviced by the hotel's 24-hour concierge team providing everything from dry cleaning, room service, access to the gym and any other amenities you would expect in a hotel.

ROOFTOP GARDENS

London's garden squares have been reimagined for the modern age and carved into the form of the building at 95, 280 and 400 feet.

On level 7 dine amongst wildflowers and cedar pathways at a dynamic roof terrace of activity.

On level 25 find a sheltered alfresco enclave, featuring fire pits, barbeques and a bar.

On level 36 sit in a breathtakingly serene alpine retreat surrounded by panoramic views of the city.

THE NEIGHBOURS

Located within the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, just minutes from Stratford International and six-minutes by train to King's Cross St Pancras, the building has front row seats to Stratford's emergence as London's largest cultural district.

Already home to the Bartlett School of Architecture, innovative digital hub Here East, the London Stadium and Zaha Hadid designed Aquatic Centre, it will soon be joined by the likes of Sadler's Wells, the V&A East, BBC Symphony Orchestra, London College of Fashion and Madison Square Garden's live music venue, Sphere and ABBA Voyage.

GYM & WELLNESS

Our gym & wellness centre features the latest equipment from Technogym, a private studio for personal training and curated fitness classes such as Pilates, HIIT and Yoga.

Or, treat yourself to well-being treatments such as a massage. Find out more about our classes on our website at www.thestratford.com/gym-wellness/.

EAT & DRINK

KITCHEN E20

The street-level Kitchen E20 is a relaxed all-day neighbourhood restaurant with an open kitchen dining bar serving a seasonal modern British menu with creative salads, robata grilled fish and meat, and indulgent larger plates. Alongside is Terrace E20 complete with a pizza oven and outdoor fire pit making it the perfect place for everything from drinks in the sun to a cosy alfresco dinner.

The Lounge is a space to relax by the fireplace, catch up with friends and family or simply sit and work. A weekly rotating roster of DJs and live music set the tone on evenings and weekends.

THE MEZZANINE

Overlooking the lobby, The Mezzanine is the place to let loose and have fun.

This cocktail bar is the first sophisticated, late-night offering in the area, with live music and DJs playing on Friday and Saturday nights. By day, an exquisite space to hire for private events to include informal meetings, networking, weddings, baby showers and more.

By night, the curtains are drawn and The Mezzanine transforms into a laid back, glamorous cocktail lounge with DJs, perfect for receptions, corporate events, private parties and birthdays.

Level 7 belongs to Allegra, a restaurant by former Chiltern Firehouse Head Chef, Patrick Powell. Traversing the classic and the creative, Allegra has recently been voted 49th best restaurant in the UK at the 2023 National Restaurant Awards and combines the very best in innovative, contemporary European cuisine, with a timelessness that celebrates the time-honoured traditions of service and hospitality. The sentiment of excitement and glamour emanated by the restaurant effortlessly continues up at the bar and through onto the terrace where guests can enjoy cocktails alongside a snacks menu.

HOTEL

THE STRATFORD

The Stratford evokes the timeless glamour and maverick social spirit of New York's legendary long-stay hotels. Set across the first seven levels, The Stratford is a design hotel with a taste for the spectacular – from the magnificent triple-height lobby and highline sky terrace to the imposing glass atrium. The interiors, by Space Copenhagen, fuse Scandinavian style with old-world opulence via serene pastel tones, natural timbers and elegant bathrooms. The Stratford's 145 rooms range from the intimate Standard to the sprawling Manhattan Studio – each equipped with all the 21st century trimmings.
